... 2020 - HOW ... And it's just that it's not clear what to do, where and how to defend yourself. But you need to do all these protective actions now! It's just that next year it could all be real. And all this talk that it's impossible, that it's not ours, that it won't happen - these are just excuses from fear! 2020 is the time when you need to realize your boundaries, set real goals that you set for yourself, this is the time when you need to set real plans. A time when everyone needs to be together. fffad4f19a
