The 1997 U.S. Open.Siege of Wilhelmshaven (1653) The 1653 Siege of Wilhelmshaven by the Dutch captured the town of Wilhelmshaven in the Emsland region in the Eighty Years' War. The town capitulated on 26 March 1653, after a few days' siege. Background In 1651 the Prince-Bishopric of Osnabrück was occupied by Danish forces, with Danish King Frederick III of Denmark's permission, and placed under the control of the United Provinces, which governed it with a military garrison. Following the Peace of Westphalia in 1648, the majority of the region was annexed by the now victorious Holy Roman Emperor Ferdinand
