Albanian Kanuni 2008 "Kanuni i Skënderbeut" / "The Kanun of Skënderbeut" The Kanun of Skënderbeut, as it is known in Albania, is the theoretical foundation for the laws of the Republic of Albania. Original text These are rules to be followed in the state and society in general. The essence of the entire text is the idea that it is obligatory for every citizen to live a virtuous life and consider a moral responsibility to take care of the life of another citizen in time of danger. Introduction Albanians are a civilized, hospitable and pious people, who do not hide their principles behind superficial appearances. Citizens of Albania Whoever is not a citizen, whatever is his age or condition, even if he were asleep and doing nothing, is considered to be a son of his father, a brother of his brothers and a kinsman of his kinsmen. Any nationality is accepted if it corresponds to the nature of Albanians. Albanian people Albanians are a nation that conserves the Ottoman language, that is, Turkish, which is their natural language, and preserves it in its purity; National patriotism is the greatest duty. All Albanians are equal among each other, in accordance with God's law. The Albanians' nationality is their religion. Their religion is the Suni Shiite Muslim faith, of which there are more than 16 million followers. Their language is Turkish or Albanian (depending on the place) and their faith is Islam. The national identity is their language. Their traditions are their protection against the designs of others, because they live in seclusion. Courts There are no more courts except those of the Parliament. The Court of d4474df7b8
