The Best News You've Heard All Day: The Strike Goes On You may have noticed that the Don & Charlie Show's regular host, Charlie Brooms, was absent last weekend. Or maybe you haven't. Hey, we'll keep it between us. But you do know he is back in the saddle today, and has been so for a week now, and we've loved every minute of it. You see, this week Brooms has given us a guest, and what a guest! Kathy Griffin is coming to town. Griffin, one of today's biggest names in comedy, was a regular on the Comedy Central sketch show "Chappelle's Show." She became a big star as co-host of Bravo's show "My Life on the D-List." And now she's back with another Bravo show. And it's "Kathy Griffin: My Life on the D-List" (Nfl.com's official description of the show). Griffin is coming to town to promote the show, which includes episodes to be seen on Thursday and Friday at 7 and 10:30 p.m. ET. This will be the second time Brooms has had Griffin on the show. The first time, Griffin was visiting Boston. This time she's going to town with her new show. As we've heard, Griffin's show is built around the "D-List" concept, in which famous and not-so-famous people who have made some kind of dud (or perhaps are duds)

System Requirements For Email2Task:

The "normal", lowest quality setting (100% of the time) works well with most normal-quality monitors, including 60 Hz and 72 Hz displays. The game uses geometry, texture and shader-based assets in order to provide an optimal experience, and requires a 64-bit Windows operating system. The minimum and recommended specifications for "normal" are as follows: Minimum: OS: Windows 7/8/10 64-bit (32-bit is not recommended) Processor: Intel Core 2 Duo or equivalent
