I have to prepare a presentation on SPRING MVC and would like to know how to view changed versions of this. For EJB or J2EE projects, we can see history of changes just like this. Is there anyway to see this for SPRING projects? A: You can use Hudson's built-in history plugin and see all commits affecting your currently checked-out branch (e.g. trunk). Unfortunately, this plugin doesn't support the provided interface for history. Q: Merging multiple CSV files using R I have several CSV files (that I have created using write.table) and I would like to merge them together in a single CSV file. I would like to have each row from each file read into a single row in the new file. I have read a few examples on the net for other functions but for some reason I cannot figure out how to do it in R. Please can you help? A: An easy way to do this is read.table, and the standard read.csv without the optional second argument.
