

---

Angelfuns Reallola Dasha Anya Lsmagazine Rapidshare

Download

[SRI LALITHA SAHASRAAMANAM SONGS IN TAMIL KANNADA (MUST READ)] I have seen the River of Longing. The Intoxicating River: The Life of Sri Lalitha Sahasranamam, South India's Greatest Spiritual Master by Ariella Oppenheim. A Guru-Vedika which regards Lalitha Sahasranamam as the last great avatar of Narayana, the Supreme Lord, and believes her instructions on the Vedas to be the last word in the spiritual canon. Name. A teacher. She gained her name by her association with Shiva, a form of Narayana. Lalitha belonged to the Velama caste and was born in Tirupathi, Andhra Pradesh, to a brahmin family. her mother was a veena artist from the Sri Nagalingeswara temple. Since her birth, Lalitha had received divine gifts and honors. In her early years, she received 12 thambis [presumably from the temple priests]. She learned the "naralinga bhairava" mantra and various other Vedic hymns, and was admitted to the temple as a student. Lalitha was 13 years old when Narayana appeared to her in a vision and asked to marry him. Through her association with Shiva, Lalitha had already begun gaining magical powers, and according to legend, at that time she started prophesying. She prophesied that she would die before Narayana. This prediction was vindicated when he died before Lalitha. He said that after his death, she would become the presiding goddess of Tirupathi and her face would be placed on Shiva's hair. He gave her several unusual powers. She could teach the recitation of various hymns by changing the spelling of her name. She received many benedictions and gifts at Tirupathi. She was commissioned as a poet to praise Shiva and sing his name. She was given lots of adoration and confidence. She received many marks of respect, for instance, Brahmins would visit Tirupathi just to make the pinda, a little offering of rice, flowers, and other items offered to a living goddess. Her powers continued to grow as she began prophesying. She predicted the destruction of the Tamil country under the rule of Valanji and warned King Krishna Vijaya to return to Mad

