(CAT) - Get Report is joining Goldman Sachs Group (GS) - Get Report and Morgan Stanley in an investment banking alliance aimed at reducing costs and increasing revenue, the companies said Friday. Caterpillar, whose products range from construction equipment to engines to mining and farming equipment, said it will team up with the three companies to provide services, such as underwriting, pricing, structuring, leasing and financing to help clients raise capital in the sale of their businesses. The move comes at a time when big investment banks have been dealing with pressure from clients and shareholders, who want to cut costs, and investors, who are looking for better returns. "This alliance will generate significant cost savings for Caterpillar and its customers, while also providing opportunities to expand our products, services and geographic reach," said Alan R. Hamilton, Caterpillar chairman and CEO, and chairman of the Goldman Sachs Group. The investment banking alliance also marks a major step toward reviving Caterpillar's once-formidable industrial-equipment business, whose sales fell to $25.8 billion in 2013, from $27.8 billion in 2012. Caterpillar, which has reported smaller declines each of the past two years, has been cutting costs and closing factories in recent years to try to boost profitability. The company, based in Peoria, Illinois, said it was targeting clients
