The effect of a standardized extract of Tinospora cordifolia on diet induced hypercholesterolemia and atherosclerosis in Wistar rats was studied. The extract reduced the total cholesterol, LDL cholesterol and triglycerides by over 70% and reduced the total tissue lipids. Its administration for a duration of 8 weeks reduced the aortic atherosclerotic lesions to almost a negligible level. These results indicate that the standardized extract of Tinospora cordifolia possesses a therapeutic potential in the management of hyperlipidemia and atherosclerosis.UFC lightweight champion Conor McGregor, who is currently on a TKO victory tour across three different countries, says there's "no chance" he will want to face Brock Lesnar. On Monday, Lesnar gave an update on his future in mixed martial arts by announcing he intends to retire after the upcoming UFC 200 pay-per-view event on July 9. With a focus on promoting the retirement of UFC heavyweight champion Daniel Cormier, Lesnar would choose to continue his career by facing former UFC light heavyweight champion Jon Jones at UFC 200. Brock Lesnar is set to have surgery this week, so he will not be at UFC 200. #UFC200 — UFC Events (@UFCEvents) May 31, 2016 This comes after he was promised a bout against McGregor at UFC 200 at The Forum in Ingle
