This is a Mac-based, yet Windows-compatible, email user interface that provides users with the ability to view, create and edit Windows' MAPI based email. It works in a background process without any user interaction. It is highly recommended for power users and serious Outlook lovers who have been hunting for a great alternative to the official Outlook client for mac. The mail user interface provides a great set of options that includes creating, editing and sending emails. The application lets one import or export emails from its internal database (both.pst and.ost files). The application also provides a powerful email composing feature, the ability to import and export OST files, as well as one that allows viewing of all email message headers.

Store: Canto on the Google Play Store: Answered by: ICS software Q: How to make the application full screen after starting?

Hi, I need to make the application full screen after the application starts. Just that. How can I do that? Asked by: Aotara Check if the extension for full screen is enabled or not in the settings of your Safari browser (Open Safari Preferences, General tab, select Full Screen button). Please do let me know if it works for you. Answered by: Sash Q: Cannot change tab on top Hi, everytime I close the app from left side, the tab on top is being reverted back, when I open it again, it's being opened on top. I can use other browsers too, so it's a common issue. Asked by: Pawel Hi, I think it can be fixed by changing the browser's setting. If it's Chrome, please go to chrome://flags and turn the option to "Never show tab preview.". If it's Safari, please go to Safari/Preferences/Advanced/Reset to factory settings, and then close Safari. Answered by: Brian T Q: cannot show or enter email Hi, I can not enter an email
