Eisenhower was also the proud owner of a very artistic wife: Julie Neal. So I was really excited when I read a book called "The President's House: The Design and Construction of the White House". The book showed some interesting pictures from the early concept stages of the White House. From this design, I ended up with some ideas for my home and I thought it would be interesting to share them with you. Let me present to you my interpretation of the Eisenhower presidential style. I hope you will enjoy it as much as I did. 1. The door. Not really a complicated idea. I'm sure you can come up with something more unique, but for me this one was the only option. 2. The living room. A long room with a surprisingly low ceiling. It is easy to change the theme depending on the colors that you choose. 3. The dining room. Pretty simple. A fire place will be nice, and not very expensive. O: How to display all the data points as a colored line I am using a chart (PieChart) to display the data points from SQL Server as a single line on the X axis. I can get the first data point to display but all the others are not visible. How can I have the SQL Server data points display as a single colored line instead of just a square? Thanks for any help!
