Collect and manage your favorite footballing heroes in FIFA Ultimate Team: the all-new, fully-featured update to one of football's most popular modes of play. Build the ultimate squad of footballing stars from the legendary Premier League and discover many never-before-seen ways to unlock and customize the ultimate team of your dreams - from formations and player traits, to kits and more. PES 2011 Enjoy with new control methods to improve your game PES 2011 includes a new way to control the player. The player now has three different actions to perform and is able to perform these actions in different timings with different levels of emphasis. In addition, the player can choose different types of movements for the three actions. To improve the player's performance, the player is also able to manipulate the ball with the ball control system. A new "collective intelligence" system, developed by Konami, gives players the ability to use their teammates as a psychological and tactical resource. This system includes intuition or intuition, awareness or awareness, and a feeling of space or feeling of space, which determine how a player reacts to different situations, and how he interacts with other players. In addition to this, the player can manipulate his teammates using tactical markers or free kicks. The new goalkeeper system makes use of the team's defense and movement when the goalkeeper is pushed backwards. The goalkeepers will now be able to block shots and defend themselves by kicking, punching, and using the D-Pad. The new player control system makes use of the player's team's speed and acceleration by allowing them to run more quickly. The player can give emphasis to running speed with a light touch, or with medium and heavy touches. The player can also use light touches to run with low speed. New visuals improve face recognition and make faces more responsive PES 2011 features improved visuals in comparison with PES 2010. PES 2011 will have more natural lip movement and a natural "explosion" effect when players bring the ball close to the goal. These improvements will enhance the game's atmosphere. In addition, the player now appears in his shirt number from waist to toe and also during kicks and throws. This includes the ability to see the back of the player's head and the background of the player's field of vision. The player's movements and reactions have also been improved, and after finishing a movement

What's new in Fifa 22:

Team of the Year - Choose from a list of the first team players of each category globally. Score goals, set up plays, score hat tricks and more with the Team of the Year. Player Ratings - Every time you face your opponent in game, your opponent gets to read your player ratings. See how the AI selects their starting eleven or what the opponents distribution is and where you can make your pitch for goal-scoring chances. Complete Team of the Year - Select a club for your playing style and check in with your captain. Show the player of the year choice and see if it suits you. Customise your playstyle - From your Dribbling IQ to Off the ball Thinking; personalise your style of play. Dynamic Timewarp - Bring things forward or back in time for a totally different game! Settings tweak allows you to play a game again with how you want. Matchday - Pump up the atmosphere at your stadium to take on a rival. Live events, weather and more engage your audience and make your experience more authentic. Realistic Ball Physics - Whether playing at home or on the road, matchday stadiums and training grounds react realistically to your performance. More precise Ball Traction - The ball is smarter and it responds to slip tackles, cunning flicks and ball control with the best of them. Sweep Pass - Gone are the days of sacrifice passes and their aerodynamics. Passers-by have never been so important as they should be with the right combination of skills. Aerial Alert & Ball Threat - Transferwire a real-time indicator for if you can jump or not. Now football managers can better weigh up the risk/reward of trying to dribble past a rival. Hidden Attributes - Share the secrets to how players transform in real life and unlock even more matches. Improved Offside Engine - Ignore more of the ball's movements to get better positions on your Offsides. FUT Champions Series - FIFA Ultimate Team Champions Series is a brand new global FUT league that you can play. This new series will feature FIFA Ultimate Team CPs and will be made up of sixty-one teams from around the world. How to get started 1. Sign in to your FIFA.com Account 2. If you are new to the FIFA Face of Football, you can create a new player using the Create Player functionality 3. Select the player you would like to play as 4. Head into Training Mode and practice playing
