Hard disk serial number changer mage botFamily comes from India to help Ricky's mom Last May, the Kiefer family from Gahanna, Ohio came to help Ricky Litchfield, a 14-year-old who has been in the coma since the horrific shooting in December 2012. At the time, Ricky's mother, Stacey Litchfield, told WCPO she was "just blown away." "I don't know how to thank people," Stacey said at the time. How can the Kiefer family help Ricky? Family from India has come to the aid of Stacey Litchfield. The Litchfield's have long lived on the ground floor of the three-story brick home they call home. Next door is a home full of people — the Kiefer family. Ricky's 18-year-old brother, Logan, is a senior at Gahanna High School. His parents, Jarrod and Sharon Kiefer, bought the home 15 years ago. The house has always been a home for the Kiefer's. Most of them are from India. They live on the first floor and have four children. The Kiefer's have hosted many a Kiefer's Ball. They have nine children and are the definition of the warm and down to earth people. If there's anything you want to say to Stacey or Ricky or Logan, you can find them at the Kiefer home. I'll never forget the day I had a chance to chat with her. I know what it's like to wait a long time for something to happen for you — I waited 13 hours before Ricky came out of it. That doesn't mean I want to put all the pressure on Stacey. She's a mother first. Stacey has been by Ricky's bedside for weeks. She says a
