And we're not because we have other real life commitments that take most of our time. We know we're not very good at blogging, but we promise to try to get better and blog more regularly. We apologize for not blogging for so long, but we promise to do so more regularly from now on. Most of you know that we have moved into our new home. At first it was a pretty great move, but little by little the moving process became more and more of a hassle. We decided that it would make sense to stay temporarily in a smaller space and we chose a friend's home near the University of Washington (UW) campus. Well, it turned out that the home was basically a fixer-upper and we spent a lot of time and effort fixing it up. We even had to go back to the attic and get some of our stuff that we left in the state it was in after our last move. We had to get new mattresses, new furnishings (some from Ikea), etc. Well, now we have a couple of giant bags full of stuff. Not all of it is new or even in a box (we had to empty out the crawl space to get to the stuff), but we spent the last several weekends
