Get it here: Screenshots Video recording YouTube is a video sharing website launched in February 2005 and owned by Google since August 2006. The site allows users to upload, view and share videos. The site also features user-submitted videos, a feature which was introduced during the site's 2007 launch. The site's mission is "to enable anyone to make creative, original videos and to play them, perfectly, anywhere in the world." As of September 2015, the site is the second most-visited site on the Internet, after Google. YouTube's content and text-based information are displayed in a user interface that is accessible via a web browser, although the site
