With the Nintendo 3DS XL, you can play almost a dozen games at once and use the larger, higher-resolution screen. If you want to enjoy a big screen experience, you'll be happy with the Nintendo 3DS XL. This is a new 3DS model that makes one of the most impressive changes the Game Boy Advance series made. With the 3DS XL model, you'll be able to play almost a dozen games at once, and you can even use it as a portable gaming system by playing 3DS titles as well as DSiWare games. This is the new installment of the girl fashion game series, where you'll be able to create your own avatar by combining different accessories and clothing. You'll be able to choose from more than 350 different combinations of accessories and clothing, with each design having different qualities and materials. The game's story mode will ask you to create your avatar based on a star as her/his cutie mark, and you'll be able to use the accessories and clothing you've obtained through play as you create your avatar. The game will have more than 700 different story mode missions, with around 120 new missions that will be added to the game after you purchase it. You will be able to save your completed character designs in your home, and you'll be able to customize your avatar with accessories and clothing you've acquired as your avatar's clothing changes based on your play and design. In the design mode, you'll be able to create and customize an entire outfit of any of the styles and designs. You'll be able to create and customize your own outfit while looking at the models of completed outfits you've created or selected from the home screen. You can select a model of any of the design items, change the color scheme and style, and edit the accessory and clothing. You'll also be able to change the color of the model's outfit by selecting different combinations of items that you've selected. The accessories and clothing will be picked out based on your choices, with the accessory and clothing you've chosen having color options with different hues and shades. The game will have a total of over 700 different story mode missions, with the first mission having more than 120 different missions that will be added in after you purchase the game. You will be able to save your completed missions, and even select them in the home screen, and you'll also be able to save your completed character designs, as well as the outfit and accessory and clothing
